RE: : 2023 ADM Material and Trucking Price Increases.

Dear Dan,

The price of the ADM FBA is going up by $1.25 from $12.35 to $13.60 per ton. The cost of Trucking ADM is going up by $5.00 per ton from $50.00 to $55.00. Fuel surcharge is not included and will be added based on the cost of Fuel over $3.50 per gallon.

This price increase will start on 01/01/23.

I look forward to continuing our relationship for the years to come. I value you as one of my customers and appreciate the opportunity it is to serve you. I strive to find the best products at the best prices while providing the quality service that you expect and deserve.

Should you have any questions or comments, please contact me.

Thank you for your continued business.

Best Regards,

Timothy J. Nicholson
