EXHIBIT "A"

53.119 ANNEXATION

The requester of water services shall be required to submit an irrevocable petition for voluntary annexation of the property being served if said property is contiguous to the current corporate boundary limits of the City of Auburn. If said property does not comply with the contiguous boundary required for voluntary annexation, the requester of water services shall be required to sign an agreement waiving any remonstrance of future annexation of the property served by the water extension and agree to submit a petition for voluntary annexation if contiguity requirements are met at a future date. Said agreement shall become a part and condition of any conveyance of real property which is the subject of the water extension.
