No person shall own or harbor an animal which creates a public nuisance. This shall include animals which are used for dog fighting.

90.32 VICIOUS ANIMALS PROHIBITED

- A. No person shall own, keep, or harbor a vicious animal within the city, provided this section shall not apply to animals under the control of a law enforcement or military agency. For the purpose of this section, an animal may be declared vicious by the Police Department or Board of Works by applying any of the following criteria:
 - 1. The animal has attacked a person or persons and the attack was unprovoked.
 - 2. The animal exhibits vicious propensities in present or past conduct including, but not limited to, conduct such that the animal has attacked or bitten another individual.
 - 3. The animal has inflicted injuries to a person creating a substantial danger to the health and life of the victim.
 - 4. The animal could not be controlled or restrained at the time of the attack to prevent the occurrence.
 - 5. The destruction of the animal is necessary to preserve the public health, safety and welfare.

- B. Whenever an animal is declared vicious, the animal shall be immediately quarantined and the Police Department shall notify the owner of said animal of the declaration. Such notice shall be served either in person or by certified or registered mail. The owner shall be notified and they must appeal the declaration to the Board of Public Works and Safety within five (5) days of said notice or said animal will be humanely destroyed at the direction of the Police Department at the owner's expense.
- C. The appeal shall be made to the Board of Public Works and Safety by delivering a letter requesting said appeal to the office of the Clerk-Treasurer at City Hall. Thereafter, a hearing shall be held before the Board at the next regularly scheduled meeting or at a special meeting in accordance with the provisions of Section 90.33. Any decision by the Board of Public Works and Safety may be appealed to a county court of competent jurisdiction. Such appeal must be brought within ten (10) days after receipt of the written decision of the Board of Public Works and Safety. During the period that the animal is held in custody, the expense of said custody shall be the responsibility of the owner of the animal.
- D. Notice of appeal shall act as a stay of the Board of Public Works and Safety's decision. However, the animal shall remain in custody at the expense of the owner during this period.

90.33 HEARINGS

All hearings before the Board of Public Works and Safety shall be conducted according to the State Trial Rules and the rules of evidence so as to provide all parties certain due process of law.

- A. The rules of evidence may be relaxed by stipulation of the parties.
- B. All hearings shall be recorded.
- C. All witnesses shall be sworn.
- D. The Board of Public Works and Safety and the City Police or other Department Prosecuting the matter before the Board of Public Works and Safety shall be represented by separate legal counsel.
- E. The decision of the Board of Public Works and Safety shall be final and presented to the animal's owner in writing.

90.34 STRAYS

Where there is no apparent owner of an animal, the Police Department place the animal at the animal shelter.

90.35 RIGHT OF ENTRY

The police may use any force necessary to remove any animal locked in a closed vehicle when the ambient temperature is eighty (80) degrees Fahrenheit or above outside the vehicle.

90.36 RIGHT OF EUTHANASIA

An animal may be euthanized at any time, when, in the judgment of the police or DeKalb Humane Society it is determined that:

At the scene of an accident an animal is obviously injured beyond medical help, or vicious, and no traceable form of identification is displayed on the animal;

An animal presented to the DeKalb Humane Society is obviously injured beyond medical help, or exhibits obvious signs of infectious disease or parasite infestation that would impose a health risk to animals or parasite infestation that would impose a health risk to animals housed in the shelter, or that exhibits symptoms of malignancy, without a traceable form of identification.

90.37 ANIMAL TRAPS; REQUIREMENT AND PROHIBITIONS

It shall be unlawful for a person to use, place, set or cause to be used, placed, or set any leg-hold trap upon any land or waters in the city unless properly licensed or authorized by the State of Indiana.

It shall be unlawful for any person to destroy, move, or alter any cages or compartments owned by the Police Department used to capture stray animals.

90.38 OPEN FEEDING OF ANIMALS

It shall be unlawful for a person to openly place food and or refuse out for animals that is spoiled and or creates a pungent or noxious odor that can be distinctly detected beyond the property line of the owner or resident of a property. It shall be unlawful to feed animals on public property or on other people’s property.

90.39 MAINTENANCE OF RESIDENCE

It shall be unlawful for a person to maintain a residence in which animals reside, in such a manner as to cause pungent or noxious odors that can be distinctly detected beyond the property line of the residence.

90.40 COSTS

All costs for sheltering an animal during the pendency of hearings and/or appeals shall be the sole responsibility of the owner. Failure to pay the costs shall result in a suit being filed in the County Circuit/Superior Court. Costs of the suit may be assessed to the animal’s owner to include filing costs and reasonable attorney fees.

90.41 OFF-PREMISES CONTROL

All domestic animals shall be controlled by a leash when not on the property of an owner, excluding fish and birds which shall be kept in an appropriate container.

90.42 COMMUNITY CATS PROGRAM

A. Definitions of Community Cat Program:

1. Free Roaming Cats: Cats at large in the community without proper identification.
2. Community Cat: A free roaming cat, without identification, that is not specifically owned by an individual. Said cat(s) may be at-large without identification, but may not be considered nuisances to the public, diseased, and/or not thriving due to loss of resources.
3. Community Cat Providers: Individuals in the community who are willing to humanely trap free roaming cats, assist in determining if the cat(s) is a candidate for the Community Cat Program, and take steps to care for a Community Cat in accordance with the Community Cat Program. Community Cat Providers are not considered to be legal owners of the cats, and as such, are not legally bound to render care beyond basic necessities for Community Cats such as food and water. Community Cat Providers are not financially responsible for the medical treatment of Community Cats and cannot be held liable for any destruction caused to person or property by said cats.

B. Community Cats: Free Roaming Cats without acceptable identification which have been impounded or trapped in the community may be deemed a potential Community Cat by the City of Auburn and/or partnering DeKalb County Humane Society based on age, health, and behavior. Such cats may be transferred to the DeKalb County Humane Society for reintegration back into the community or placement in a barn cat program;

- C. A cat identified as an existing Community Cat may be immediately returned to the community.
- D. Implementing Community Cat Program:
 - 1. The City of Auburn, in coordination with participating citizens (Community Cat Providers), may impound Community Cats which are at-large without identification, nuisances to the public, diseased, or not thriving due to loss of resources in accordance with this chapter.
 - 2. The City of Auburn shall provide traps to citizens participating in the program at no cost. Said traps shall remain the property of the City of Auburn, Indiana and shall be returned immediately after the cats have been released or upon a citizen withdrawing from the Community Cat Program.
- E. The City of Auburn shall coordinate with partnering animal welfare organizations, such as the DeKalb County Humane Society and/or veterinarians, to offer resource information for establishing opportunities for Community Cats, Community Cat Providers, human deterrents, and advice regarding Community Cat nuisances.
- F. A Community Cat Provider shall comply with rules established and adopted by the Auburn Board of Works and Public Safety in coordination with the DeKalb County Humane Society to implement this program and the requirements set forth in this chapter.
- G. The Community Cat Program shall provide for the following:

Community Cat Providers found to be in violation of this Chapter or managing excess number of Community Cats as determined by the City may have their Community Cat Provider designation revoked at the discretion of the City.

 - 1. The ability to confine Free Roaming Cats and arrange for surgical sterilization, ear tipping, and vaccination for rabies by a licensed veterinarian, microchipping and documentation of the foregoing prior to release back to the community;
 - 2. The ability to seek veterinary care for or obtain assistance from an Animal Welfare Organization or the Department for Community Cats for those which appear to require medical attention for serious illness or injury;
 - 3. Make reasonable effort to work with the City of Auburn or partnering Animal Welfare Organization to resolve nuisance complaints using humane deterrents and/or the removal of Community Cats identified as a Public Nuisance; and
 - 4. Community Cat Providers found to be in violation of this chapter may have their designation revoked at the discretion of the City of Auburn Board of Works and Public Safety and be subject to fines and/or other remedies at law consistent with Chapter 90 of the Auburn City Code.
- H. In addition to all other remedies at law, violations of this program shall be subject to fines and penalties in accordance with the Penalty provisions of this program.

90.43 ENFORCEMENT

It shall be the responsibility of the Police Department to issue citations for violations of this chapter.

90.99 PENALTY

Any violation of this Ordinance is punishable by a fine of $50.00. Each day a violation continues is a separate offense.

Approved 2/19/2019 Ordinance 2019-02
